Carlei Estate & Carlei Green Vineyards

Sergio Carlei has been hand crafting "real" wines for nearly twenty years.

Despite having a scientific background, Halliday describes him as having the "golden touch" when it comes to handcrafting "real" wines;

They are Terroir wines. So what are Terroir wines?

They are achieved by growing vines of a specific variety

In a specific region

In a specific soil

In a specific climate

....and that's not all.

To truly express terroir requires a pure and natural environment free of artificial elements and un-natural interferences.

Therefore, vines need to be grown naturally.

The role of the winemaker is to express these terroir components by minimal intervention through a combination of "old world" tradition (experience) and "new world" technology (practicality).

Together with Sommelier Josh Dunne, they have put together and blended the "China Doll" selection of wines for you to enjoy.

The China Doll Chardonnay is from old dry grown vines from the Yarra Valley. The Pinot Noir is a blend of Dijon clones grown biodynamically from the cooler Cardinia region, south of the Yarra Valley. They are classical wines not to be found anywhere else, truly unique to China Doll restaurant.

Please enjoy these handcrafted wines....naturally!

Josh and Sergio.
